THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION PLANS SET

ADMINISTRATION FORCES WILL BE IN CONTROL DESPITE THE COMMONER, WHO ARRIVED TODAY

CUMMINGS WILL BE TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN AND SEC. COLBY THE PERMANENT CHAIRMAN

HUGH BAILLIE (United Press Staff Correspondent)

San Francisco, June 25—Wm. Jennings Bryan arrived here today, facing one of the hardest battles of his career—to wrest from the administration control of the democratic national convention.

The convention at present is practically and solidly in charge of the friends of President Wilson and the program is to put it on record as endorsing the executive policy, particularly the league of nations.

Bryan is believed to be determined to break up this control, prevent the convention from flatly endorsing the league and to inject a number of new issues into the situation.

When he arrives today he will find his opponents apparently sitting pretty tight and consider the commoner's eleventh hour arrival will not seriously annoy them.

The convention situation today is this:

The temporary chairman will be Homer Cummings, chairman of the national committee, who resigned. Bryan declared, several months ago. Cummings has prepared a keynote speech applauding the record of the administration. It is understood, and putting forward the league issue.

The permanent chairmanship is scheduled to go to Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state. Colby, if elected, is expected to make an extemporaneous speech which will amount to a statement from the president to the convention.

Other chairmanships of important committee, are the resolutions committee, which will frame the platform, which is scheduled to go to Senator Carter Glass, of Virginia, who is here with the league of nations platform plank adopted by the Virginia state convention and approved by the president as a model for the one he wants to go into the national platform.

Delegates Arrive at Frisco

San Francisco, June 25—The influx of delegates and visitors to the national democratic convention will reach its peak late tonight or early tomorrow. Trains bearing convention-bound travelers will arrive before midnight Saturday.

The Illinois delegation which arrived last night, was the first complete state outfit on the scene. The Illinoisans were closely followed by the Florida delegation.

Suggestions For Democratic Platform

San Francisco, June 25—An Irish plank will be adopted by the platform committee of the democratic national convention, according to the plans of leaders.

The planks proposed represent only a diplomatic expression of sympathy with people seeking self determination. The outspoken planks to be submitted by Irish workers probably will be rejected. There will be no attempt to make a plank as a sop to Irish democrats who oppose the league of nations.

The farmers' national council has workers here seeking the adoption of twelve planks including the exclusion of oriental labor, government ownership of railroads, federal control of the meat packing industry and repeal of the sedition and espionage law.

Samuel Gompers will arrive tomorrow and seek to advocate labor planks, which he claims were given scant consideration by the republican national convention.

Representatives of the national league of women voters have a number of planks, including better pay for teachers, which they hope to have adopted. They are the same as those presented to the republican convention.

Palmer at Scene of Battle

San Francisco, June 25—Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer arrived here today ahead of schedule and went into conference with the men and women who are managing his campaign for the democratic presidential nomination.

Three Factions in Convention HAROLD JACOBS, (United Press Staff Correspondent)

San Francisco, June 25—Three factions, constituting practically a distinct political party, will go into the democratic national convention Monday in the opinion of a prominent candidate for the presidential nomination.

According to this candidate the factions are grouped under the following leaders:

The administration, Wm. Jennings Bryan, Chas. F. Murphy.

The first alignment will be that of Bryan and Murphy factions to insert in the platform a plank declaring for minor reservations to the league of nations covenant, which if successful, would be a nominal defeat for the administration, the candidate said.

This accomplished, Bryan and the dry element of the administration block, will then unite to prevent the wets under Murphy's leadership, from putting anti-prohibition provisions into the platform. At the same time he believes the dries will be content with this victory and make no effort to insert a dry plank on the ground that such action would be superfluous.

The final major alignment would be taken over by Bryan in administration factions to pick a presidential nominee. Murphy is generally credited with controlling enough votes to even veto the power of the convention.

LONDONDERRY IS AN ARMED CAMP

SEVERAL REGIMENTS OF BRITISH TROOPS WITH MACHINE GUNS GUARD THE CITY

(United Press)

Dublin, Ireland, June 25—Several regiments of British troops, including a cavalry company controlled the streets at Londonderry today. The city had the appearance of an armed camp. Tanks, machine guns and barbed wire entanglements effectively dampened the ardor of the Sinn Feiners and unionists who had held the citizens in their homes and prevented conduct of business by factional fighting since last Friday night.

Two more men, one Sinn Feiner and a unionist, died early today in a hospital from wounds received last night. The only disturbances reported today were in the outskirts of Londonderry. Several refugees arriving here said the unionists had strongly entrenched along the road from Carrigan to Londonderry.

S-sh! Keep It Dark!

At a recent bar examination a candidate defined law as follows: "Law is the means by which we acquire legal possession of property belonging to another."—Boston Transcript.

Kiddies Being Entertained by Firemen on "Keep Off the Streets" Playground

San Francisco firemen are trying to solve the problem of how to keep the kiddies out of danger from street traffic. This includes, of course, fire engines. Truck Co. No. 2, Engine Co. No. 5, under the supervision of Lieutenant Isaacs, have built a "keep off the streets" playground in front of

WETS AND DRIES WILL FIGHT FOR DEM. NOMINATION

AT SAN FRANCISCO, ALSO FOR PLATFORM PLANK ENDORSING THEIR PRINCIPLE

(United Press)

San Francisco, June 25—The impression grew along the presidential row today that candidates for the democratic nomination will find themselves lined up in a wet and dry battle which will offset balloting.

Official factions appeared armed to settle the issue and select nominees as well as adopt a platform. Some veteran politicians forecast the possible program thus:

The wets would get behind Governor James M. Cox, of Ohio, and the dries behind Attorney General Palmer on the first ballot.

Eventually it is believed one side would be signally defeated. The assumption is that if Cox should fail, Edwards, Marshall and Gov. Alfred Smith and probably Senator Gilbert Hitchcock would go with him. On the same basis, the defeat of Palmer, it is expected, would practically eliminate Owen, Bryan, Gerard, Meredith, Cummings, Glass and Senator F. M. Simmons.

GOVERNMENT ASSIGNS AIR EQUIPMENT WORTH $500,000 TO MINNESOTA

(By United Press)

St. Paul, June 25—Minnesota will not have only a balloon squadron for the national guard, but about half a million dollars worth of equipment assigned by the government. Adjutant General Rhinow was advised today. He was authorized to organize a flying squadron to handle balloons and airplanes.

The equipment includes balloons, airplanes and equipments for flying fields, hangars and airdrome. The machinery will be provided. This is the only state in the middle west which has been thus recognized by the war department.

JAIL DELIVERY FRUSTRATED BY SHERIFF

(By United Press)

Aberdeen, S. D., June 25—Plans of six prisoners of the Brown county jail here to effect escape by sawing the bars, were frustrated yesterday when Sheriff Ellis discovered the plot.

The cell and corridor bars had been sawed and the bars were held in place by soap while the prisoners awaited a favorable moment to escape. But a hammer test revealed the camouflage.

It is believed the saws were smuggled into the jail by a woman friend of one of the prisoners.

His Boon Reached When Professor as Treasury Department Head Withdrew

Senator Carter Glass

Definite withdrawal of his name for consideration as a candidate for the democratic nomination at the San Francisco convention by William G. McAdoo was followed by the launching of a boom for Senator Carter Glass of Virginia. For several months Senator Glass had been considered a possibility, but he was known to be a close friend of the Treasury department. Before Mr. McAdoo's withdrawal it had been stated that Senator Glass would head the Committee on Platform at San Francisco. Should Senator Glass be nominated he would have the distinction of having written his own platform and presenting it to the convention.

SOFT COAL RATES HELD TOO HIGH

NEITHER DECREASED PRODUCTION NOR CAR SHORTAGE DECLARED JUSTIFY PRICES

Washington, June 25—That neither decreased production, car shortage nor export demands justify present high prices of bituminous coal, was asserted today in a statement issued by the department of justice.

It is declared that attributing high prices to decreased production, car shortage, or export demands is no defense to the charge of profiteering under the Lever act.

On the question of car shortage, the department says the service orders issued last Saturday by the interstate commerce commission, giving priority to coal movement, should relieve this situation.

Consumers of soft coal are asked to help reduce prices to a reasonable level by refusing to bid against each other for coal at high prices.

It is declared the cost of production cannot possibly justify the reported prices, in view of the monthly production cost figures of the federal trade commission, which show that during January, 1920, costs averaged $2.32 per ton at the mines, and that since then the production cost has increased only $2.79 per ton.

ASST. WAR SECRETARY CROWELL RESIGNS

(By United Press)

Washington, June 25—Assistant Secretary of War Benedict Crowell, has resigned, Secretary Baker announced today.

MARSHALL AT SAN FRANCISCO AS A PEACEMAKER

(By United Press)

San Francisco, June 25—Vice-President Thomas Marshall will attend the San Francisco convention, not as a candidate, but as a peacemaker, he declared today.

"I am here," he said, "as a delegate at large from Indiana, to do all that can be done to reconcile the conflicting views of the democrats from the Atlantic to the Pacific, to get a safe and sane platform, to put a good man on the ticket, and let him go to it. There must be compromises," he said very decidedly.

DEMS. START MOVE TO GET NONPARTISAN ENDORSEMENT

HOPE TO ELECT THEIR CANDIDATES BY GETTING FARMER-LABOR SUPPORT

(United Press)

St. Paul, June 25—A movement started here today to win the farmer-labor support for the democratic state ticket in the November election.

While none of the democratic leaders would commit themselves, they were apparently pleased at the prospect of having the farmer-labor endorsement of the democratic ticket. Elimination of the third party in the race was the bait offered.

Political observers pointing to the big vote secured by candidates of the national nonpartisan league in the republican primaries, look for the nonpartisan league to do one of three things:

Run the primary ticket over again as independent in November.

Endorse the farmer-labor ticket headed by C. M. King for governor.

Endorse L. O. Hodgson for governor on the democratic ticket and fill up unoccupied posts for state offices, congressmen and legislators with strict farmer-labor candidates.

The latter action, it was pointed out, would present a formidable ticket in the November election. The only question was whether Hodgson, a profound democrat, can be endorsed by the farmer-labor movement to head the ticket.

A state convention of the nonpartisan league and the working people's nonpartisan league in the near future, will decide these questions.

Hodgson believes the enmity of the labor ticket against him in the recent city election has been washed away by his appointment of a labor man as public safety commissioner.

BONUS BOARD CALLS MEETING TO GET MONEY

(By United Press)

St. Paul, June 25—The state bonus board called a meeting late today to find some means of raising additional funds to pay the soldier bonus.

Attorney General C. L. Hilton ruled that money can not be transferred from the revenue fund to the soldier bonus fund with which to pay bonuses. However some accumulated interest which has been set aside for the purpose of liquidation raised on the sale of certificates of indebtedness may be used.

YALE BEATS HARVARD IN ANNUAL REGATTA

(By United Press)

New London, Conn., June 25—Yale triumphed over Harvard in the first two events of the annual regatta here today, winning both the freshmen and junior varsity race.

Vice-President and New York Governor Who Are Mentioned as Possibilities When the San Francisco Convention Meets

Governor Alfred E. Smith

Vice-President Thomas Riley Marshall has been quoted as saying that he has worked hard for his party's success in every national campaign since William Jennings Bryan's first candidacy and that he thinks it is time for him to drop politics. However, he

HOOVER CABINET POSSIBILITY IF SEN. HARDING IS ELECTED

RAYMOND CLAPPER, (Staff Correspondent United Press.)

Washington, June 25—Despite efforts of Warren G. Harding, republican presidential nominee to discourage all speculation regarding cabinet selections, the name of Herbert Hoover as a possible choice for secretary of state, was circulated here today.

The Hoover talk started when he took breakfast at Harding's house immediately upon the return of the nominee to Washington. Harding expressed himself as highly pleased over the conference with Hoover.

Harding is known to hold Hoover's ability in high regard. Hoover is thoroughly acquainted with European affairs and is held in high esteem because of the food relief there.

STREET CAR STRIKES AND KILLS MAN

(By United Press)

St. Paul, June 25—John L. Marshall, 35, was struck and instantly killed by a street car early today. Some witnesses said he was first struck by an unidentified automobile and hurled in front of the car. Others denied this.

HOOVER ADVOCATES RATIFICATION OF THE PEACE TREATY

AT ONCE, WITH ARTICLE TEN ELIMINATED FROM LEAGUE OF NATIONS

(By United Press)

Washington, June 25—Earliest possible ratification of the German peace treaty with the elimination of Article X and adherence to the league of nations as the platform upon which the republican party should stand in the presidential campaign, was urged by Herbert Hoover in a statement published by the New York Evening Post today.

Hoover advocated the league as the "production of the liberal classes of the world," declaring that in such an organization there was no place for any threats of military force, such as is implied in the present Article X.

Hoover urged the republican party to take a definite stand for the ratification of the treaty without Article X, in order to force the democratic party in the position of defense.

Harding to Approve Hoover Plan

Washington, June 25—The Hoover plan of adopting the league of nations covenant with Article X eliminated, was regarded here today as a possible forecast of the attitude of Senator Warren G. Harding, republican presidential nominee.

Vice-President Marshall

has friends who are going to push him to the front at the democratic national convention at San Francisco. Tammany Hall started a boom for Alfred E. Smith, governor of New York.

HILTON PROBABLY DEFEATED FOR ATTY. GENERAL

RELATED RETURNS HAVE PUT SULLIVAN, NONPARTISAN AS NOMINEE, 400 IN LEAD

WITH 100 PRECINCTS YET TO HEAR FROM—OFFICIAL COUNT NECESSARY TO DETERMINE

HILTON AGAIN AHEAD

St. Paul, June 25—C. L. Hilton today forged ahead of Thomas Sullivan in the race for the republican nomination for attorney general. 3,124 precincts gave Hilton 116,197, Sullivan 114,261.

St. Paul, June 25—Additional country precincts and several corrections today indicate Thomas V. Sullivan nonpartisan league candidate, has nosed ahead of Clifford Hilton for the republican nomination for attorney general in Monday's primaries. Only the official tabulation by the canvass board next Tuesday will tell the tale, it appears. Sullivan was leading Hilton by more than 400 with nearly 100 country precincts still out. These small precincts were expected to give Sullivan additional advantage since returns from practically the same precincts on the republican vote for governor cut down the vote for J. A. O. Preus and favored Dr. Henrik Shipstead. The latter was Sullivan's nonpartisan running mate.

The rest of the G. O. P. ticket endorsed by the republican state convention today seemed secure. A majority of 9000 to 20,000 or more were piled up for every candidate over the nonpartisan league or other opponents.

Preus was leading Shipstead by about 9,000 today.

More complete returns showed H. B. Dibel, incumbent, still leading in the race for the nomination for justice of the supreme court. He had a lead of more than 15,000 over George Siegel, endorsed by the nonpartisan league, and Siegel was leading Judge Albert Johnson of Red Wing, for second place by more than 6,000.

THIRD PARTY WILL BID FOR PROHIBITION SUPPORT

BY ADOPTING A DRY PLANK—THIS PREVENTING SEPARATE PROHIBITION TICKET

(By United Press)

Chicago, June 25—Liberals who propose launching a third party here next month by amalgamating radical organizations, may bid for support from prohibitionists by adopting a dry plank in its platform, it was indicated here today.

With wets and dries at the democratic convention in San Francisco threatening a deadlock, leaders of the proposed third party are hoping it will aid them to step in and pick off a prohibition vote with a favorable dry plank. Believing the dries will turn to a party which will take a definite stand on the prohibition question, liberal leaders are considering a dry plank for their platform. This they say might lead to the prohibition national party endorsing a third party ticket.

Principal advocates of a dry plank in the third party platform come from a large party which is expected to join the third party movement.

"Workers are beginning to change their minds," said Frank J. Esper, secretary of the national labor party, today. "They are beginning to find they can handle their problems better without liquor. They resent the action of political parties playing up the liquor question as a vote getter."

CONVICTED FUR ROBBERS LOSE APPEAL

(By United Press)

St. Paul, June 25—The famous $23,000 fur robbery in Minneapolis in June, 1918, had its culmination in supreme court today. The court confirmed convictions of Frank P. Levine, Phil Morgan and Charles Coplin, former St. Paul merchants.

The men have been out on bail pending a decision of the court.

One of the freaks of the election in St. Cloud was the defeat of the charter amendment raising the salaries of the commissioners, $1500 to $2500 a year. Union labor is reported to have taken umbrage at some of Mayor Mattson's appointments and made an open fight against the increase and defeated it in every precinct. Mayor Mattson's only comment was: "I earned $8 a day before I was elected mayor as a stone cutter, and I can always go back to that job".

B. E. Hurd, the Pine River man who attempted suicide on Train No. 1 of the Northern Pacific, as it entered Little Falls, is on the road to recovery. He slashed his throat with a pocket knife. The blade entered his throat below the Adam's apple and went in deep. It came within a quarter of an inch of a large artery, but nothing vital was touched. Mrs. Hurd has arrived from Pine River and is at his bedside at the hospital. Mr. Hurd has no idea why he committed the act.

Hair For the Bald.

A French surgeon of the Pasteur Institute claims to have discovered a process by which he can graft hair to the scalp and so make the heads of the bald to blossom like the Seven Sutherland Sisters. He declares that he has already positively and permanently cured six bachelors of baldness through a slight surgical operation which is painless and leaves no ill effects.

Preserving Spider Webs.

Naturalists employ an ingenious method in order to preserve the web of the spider. The webs are first sprayed with a thin solution of artists' shellac and then, if of the ordinary geometric form, they are pressed carefully against a glass plate, the supporting threads of the web being severed. After the shellac solution has dried the plates carrying the webs are stored in a cabinet for later use in scientific work.

SCOREBOARD IS HIS DIAMOND

Most Hopeless of Fans Is the One Who Can Enjoy Game Without Seeing It.

We never see him at the game, not even in the bleachers. He stands before a checkered frame with scores of fellow creatures. He cannot hear the crack of bat or see the rival fingers, but yet he visions all of that as on the curb he lingers.

He cannot hear the batters "beef" or hoot in wild derision, nor can he raise a cry of "thief" when puffed at some decision. He cannot watch, with features set, his diamond gods embattled; he cannot start a din to get the other twirler rattled.

But yet he groans or whoops with joy, looks glum or starts to grinning, when now and then the office boy chalks up the latest inning. The board dissolves before his view as do the street and alley and fancy speeds him quickly to that dear old Rainier valley.

In fancy he is with the birds that perch upon the railing, with "empties" and assorted words the robber "umps" assailing, and though the scoreboard's potent dope portends a sad disaster, he sticks around in dogged hope his heroes yet will master.

Most anyone can be a fan who owns a season ticket; it takes another sort of man to be a scoreboard picket. He swarms around the boards in packs, he's not aloof or clannish. If he were charged a sidewalk tax how soon our debt would vanish.—Carlton Fitchett in the Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

TO WORSHIP IN OPEN AIR

Congregation of First Congregational Church and Odd Fellows Sunday Morning

AT THE EVERGREEN CEMETERY
Singing Will be Led By a Quartet—
In Case of Rain Services at the Church

The congregation of the First Congregational church will worship with the Odd Fellows in the cemetery on Sunday morning at 10:30. At that time the annual memorial service of Unity Lodge, No. 194 I. O. O. F. will be held.

Rev. Fred Errington, pastor of the First Congregational church was asked to give the talk in the cemetery and, feeling sure that his congregation would be pleased to worship in the open air, he accepted the invitation. The public is cordially invited to join with the Odd Fellows and the church congregation in this memorial service. The singing will be led by a quartette, and this service in God's out-of-doors ought to be enjoyable. In case of rain, services will be held in the First Congregational church.

The Sunday school of the First Congregational church will be held in the church at the regular hour 11:45 a. m.

Erickson-Thelander

Miss Judith Aleda Erickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Erickson was married Wednesday evening June 23, to Alton Thelander at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. M. L. Hostager officiating and using the Lutheran ring service.

The bride was gowned in georgette crepe over satin and wore a bridal veil. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids were Miss Evelyn B. Anderson and Miss Florence Erickson.

Miss Anderson, a cousin of the bridegroom, wore white voile and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Miss Erickson, a cousin of the bride also wore white voile and carried a bouquet of carnations. The best men were Gerard E. Erickson and Paul Erickson, brothers of the bride.

Little Dorothy Leonard, a niece of the bridegroom, carried the ring in a bouquet of roses. The wedding march was played by Mrs. A. J. Ronquist of St. Paul. Before and after the ceremony she sang "Oh Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly".

The home was decorated in pink and green. The wedding ceremony was performed on the porch and it was brilliantly illuminated with a Delco light system installed by Geo. Johnson.

After the wedding a supper was served to 150 guests. The bride is a graduate of the Brainerd high school and has taught at the "Five Mile Corner" school in Oak Lawn township. She is a charming and pretty girl with a host of friends. Last winter she visited in California as a guest of J. C. Barber and his daughter, Mrs. Edgerton. The bridegroom is the son of Oscar Thelander, one of the pioneer farmers of the county. He is employed at the Ford factory in Detroit, Mich.

After a honeymoon at the Merwin cottage on South Long lake, they will go to Minneapolis and visit friends and relatives and then on to Detroit, Mich., where they will be at home to their friends after July 15.

The Dispatch joins their many friends in extending best wishes for their continued happiness and prosperity.

Swanson-Nelson

Miss Josephine Emily Swanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Swanson of 901 South Sixth street, was married to Swan Harold Nelson, Thursday evening, June 24, at the parsonage of the Bethlehem Lutheran church, Rev. M. L. Hostager officiating, and using the Lutheran ring service.

The bride was charming and pretty in a blue tricotine traveling suit with hat to match and wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses. She was attended by Miss Mabel A. Edquist who was gowned in blue. The best man was Oscar W. Swanson, a brother of the bride.

After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served at the home of the bride, relatives numbering thirty being present. The house was handsomely decorated for the occasion.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Hilma Peterson, cousin of the bride, of St. Paul; Miss Helen Holmes, also a cousin of the bride, of Tacoma, Wash. The bride is a charming young girl with many friends in the city and is a graduate of the Brainerd high school. The bridegroom is an employee of the W. E. Lively Automotive Co. After a short wedding trip to Minneapolis, they will go to housekeeping at 720 South Fifth street and be at home to their friends after July 1.

The Dispatch joins their many friends in extending best wishes for their continued happiness and prosperity.

Carlson-Soderlund

The marriage of Miss Elsie Carlson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Carlson of 801 South Nineteenth street, and David Soderlund took place at the parsonage of the Swedish Lutheran church on Thursday evening, Rev. E. G. Carlson officiating.

The bride was radiantly beautiful in a traveling suit of blue with hat to match and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. They were attended by Ruben Soderlund, a brother of the bridegroom.

The bride has a large circle of friends and was for three years past bookkeeper and stenographer of the Brainerd Gas & Electric Co. The bridegroom is a clerk of the M & I railway.

After a honeymoon at Hubert they will go to housekeeping in Brainerd on North Bluff, being at home to their friends after July 1. The Dispatch joins their many friends in extending best wishes for their continued happiness and prosperity.

SHOULD GET ANOTHER BEAU

Little Probability That Hoosier Girl Will Ever Eradicate Stinky Streak From Present One.

The stingiest young man has been discovered and he is a Hoosier too—living in Terre Haute, says the Indianapolis News. He has long been termed a chair-warmer by the family of the girl whom he honors with his company, for he has never taken her to a show—even a moving picture one. As for candy and flowers, well he has not sent or brought any of either.

As he seemed to be really nice the girl decided that perhaps he was green—that he needed a little hint. So the other night she decided to give him one. After he had occupied about an hour of her time and also of her father's heat and electric light, she said: "Oh, I'm so hungry for candy. Will you go to the drug store with me so that I can get some?"

He rose to show his willingness, and the girl was delighted, believing that her plan was going to work. But when the drug store was reached and the candy was bought, he displayed no intention of paying the bill. So, of course, she had to do it herself.

Furious at him and the whole world, too, she carried the box home and put it, still in its wrappings, on the piano in the living room. And all the rest of the evening she tortured him by talking of the joy she would have in the morning when she ate the candy.

BEARDS AS BILL COLLECTORS

Author Gives Possible Reason Why Most Publishers Prefer the Clean-Shaven Face.

Herbert Jenkins, the London publisher who occasionally tosses off a book himself, tells the story of how on one occasion when he was dining with an author and editor, the author suddenly called his attention to a man sitting alone in a far corner of the restaurant.

"That man," remarked the author, "has character. He has a publisher from whom he can never extract money. What do you think he did?" Mr. Jenkins shook a dubious head. "He went to the publisher's office and demanded payment. There was nothing doing. Without ceremony he seized the publisher by the beard and announced his intention of hanging on until he got a check. He got his money."

"That," continued the author remorselessly, as he fixed a speculative eye upon Mr. Jenkins' clean-shaven chin, "is why very few publishers wear beards."

Sixty rolls of photographic film handled in ten minutes' actual working time is the claim made for a system of glazed stoneware developing tanks now on the market, according to Popular Mechanics Magazine. The tanks are sold in sets of three, one for developing, one for fixing and one for washing. Each has a concave bottom, terminating in a brass drain cock. The last, or washing, tank is fitted also with an overflow connection, to permit continuous water circulation from bottom to top.

CLEAR CALL TO AMERICANS

Year 1920 Should Be Remembered by All as Anniversary of Establishment of Free Institutions.

Distinguished Americans, including William H. Taft, Charles Hughes and Cardinal Gibbons, have appealed to their fellow countrymen to remember and honor by local celebrations at any suitable time beginning June 4 the establishment of free institutions in America. A great year is 1920. Three hundred years ago beginning the 30th of last July, there was being held in Jamestown, colony of Virginia, the first American legislative assembly called by free men of lawful age and understanding. And during this time, with self-government at its birth hour, the Pilgrims from England after a twelve years' sojourn in Holland were making ready to establish in the new world a home of religious freedom. One year after the Virginians met, this Pilgrim band set sail for America, departing from Leyden, Holland, July 30, 1620. Furthermore let it not be forgotten that Nov. 11 is not only the anniversary day of signing of the Mayflower compact, second assumption by English colonies in America of the unalienable right of self-government, but it is also of the signing of the armistice closing the great war in which, as the above representative spokesmen point out, the descendants of the Pilgrims of New England and the cavaliers of Virginia and their kindred crossed the sea and won liberty together. A year with an imperative challenge to renew policies of Americanization and patriotic consecration is 1920, and no community should be without its religious and civic expression in acknowledgment of the past and in dedication to the future.

Landmark to Be Preserved.

The Mullan tree, landmark of the old Mullan trail, the first highway connecting Montana and Idaho with the coast, will be preserved to posterity through the creation of a national monument area by the president. On July 4, 1861, Captain John Mullan, leader of the party having in charge the survey and construction of the Mullan trail from Walla Walla, Wash., to Ft. Benton, Mont., closed his work at the connecting point of the roads from the east and west, at the head of the Fourth of July canyon, between Wallace, Idaho, and Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. There he marked appropriately a huge white pine tree, which since that time has been known as the Mullan tree. Tourists seeking souvenirs of their jaunt along the Yellowstone trail have damaged the ancient tree so much that forest service officers have found it necessary to take steps to protect it, and to accomplish this have submitted a petition proposing that a national monument area be created, which has been approved.—Kansas City Journal.

The Unmistakable Cockney.

Lady Georgiana Peel tells some good stories in her "Recollections." One concerns her father-in-law, General Peel. He was at a banquet in Paris. Mistaking his capability of conversing in French, he talked during most of the dinner to a neighbor who he knew liked airing his English; but after a time he made up his mind he must talk to the silent French gentleman on his left.

He gathered his French together, and hazarded a remark: "Quelle chambre magnifique!" he said, with many distinctly foreign gesticulations. The man leant towards him confidentially. General Peel braced himself to understand. "Ain't a patch on our Guildhall," was the whisper that reached him with an unmistakable accent.

Woman Question Again.

One day Karl Edwin Harriman made a pilgrimage to General Weston's Connecticut farm and on the last lap of the journey took a jitney. The driver had his wife on the front seat with him and Harriman noticed later that it was the wife who collected the fare. As they traveled the editor spoke about the author.

"It's just like George Weston's impudence to write stories about women," said Mrs. Jehu. "What does he know about women? Ain't even married."

"That ain't no argument," said the jitney driver, sadly, "maybe he knows too all-fired much about 'em to get married."

Home Town Helps

GARDEN CITIES HELP TRAFFIC

Relief of Part of Population
 Relieves Congestion on Cars in London.

Dense morning fogs have combined with the now chronic congestion of passenger traffic to make Londoners realize too vividly the inconveniences of an over centralized population, remarks the London Times. London is undoubtedly too large for health, for happiness and for economical living and production; and, although the amenities of life in this and other great cities have in some ways been increased by providing dormitories at a distance from the work room, the problem of daily transit has been proportionately intensified.

Much is to be said for the garden suburb, but even more for the garden city. The two are often confused or falsely identified, but from the point of view of transport the difference between is fundamental. Garden suburbs represent an extension of the daily traffic of a great town to a more distant circumference; garden cities, a permanent transference of a section of the population to a less crowded center.

Every inhabitant of a garden suburb who works in the city contributes twice a day his or her share to the ever increasing problem of traffic congestion. The colonist of a garden city, on the other hand, definitely relieves the overcrowded centers of the duty of transporting him to and from his work and catering for him and his. Dwellers in garden suburbs are excursionists; the garden citizen is an emigrant. It is of the nature of the community to which he belongs that he shall not only sleep, breakfast and occasionally play lawn tennis and grow beans or roses there, but shall work there as well; and for his reward as a pioneer he escapes the strains and stretches of the strap-hanger.

TOWNS' NEED OF WOODLOT

Would Be Paying Proposition in These Days of Railroad Strikes and Coal Shortages.

Is there a little woodlot in your town? Zurich, Switzerland, has had one working for it for six centuries and it is still paying big dividends. There is a great big lesson in this, the American Forestry association of Washington says. In these days of railroad strikes and coal shortages.

Many travelers are familiar with the "town forests" of Europe. One of the best known of these is the communal forest belonging to the city of Zurich, in Switzerland, which has an area of 2,840 acres, yielding on the average an annual income of nearly $20,000, or about $7.00 per acre; and this is the most remarkable because most of this income is derived from the sale of firewood, which is perhaps, the cheapest product of a forest.

This tract of forest land has been under management since the year 1300, and it has been steadily increasing in value during these six centuries, writes Prof. John Bentley, Jr., of Cornell, in the American Forestry Magazine. In this country the number of towns and cities that are practicing forestry is still small, and their efforts have been confined chiefly to the protection of watersheds from which the city's water supply is drawn.

Billboards Versus Beauty.

Thus it comes about that people who ride out into the country, eager for the rest and refreshment which only the open country can give, find every field and every little hill dotted by V-shaped signs, erected in the most approved fashion, and ornamented with the approved moldings and machine-made copies, while the beautiful vistas that might otherwise make each turn in the road a new delight are cut short by successive examples of the approved "head-on" "showings." One needs but to test his own sensations on such a motor ride to know how completely the billboard men are stifling his power to enjoy "natural scenic beauty spots." All their scruples have not preserved to him his native rights in the open country.—Christian Science Monitor.

Where Did the Colors Go?

John's mother was washing some of his garments. Holding up one of his new wash suits, she exclaimed: "Oh, dear, dear, John, the colors in your pretty new suit ran." John, who was having much trouble in controlling a fiery steed in the form of a broom handle, apparently paid little attention. A little while later, he came to his mother, and said in a much puzzled manner: "Mother, I can't find 'em any place." "Find what, dear?" asked the mother. "Why, the colors," answered John. "You said they ran. Where did they go?"

Long Felt Want.

Federal authorities accuse Meads of bootlegging, declaring that he took whisky across the Canadian border to Hanover from Montreal.

Good Causes and Poor Tunes.

Mr. Bernard Shaw, who has fallen foul of "The Red Flag," which he regards as an air that would ruin any movement, seems to forget that many a good cause has been supported by a poor tune. The Belgian national anthem is a remarkably laudable melody but that did not impair the resistance of Liege. And neither the words nor music of "God Save the King," are particularly uplifting. The air of "Lillibulero," that is said to have whistled James II off the throne of England, cannot have been a very distinguished one, for nowadays no one seems to know what it was. On the other hand the Russian national anthem was easily one of the most stirring examples of its kind in Europe, but it did not save Russia from collapse. If the Soviets have provided a substitute for it the result would probably please Mr. Shaw as little as "The Red Flag," which he considers should be rechristened "The Eternal March of a Fried Eel."—Manchester Guardian.

Think Earth Will Last Many Years.

In a recent lecture Sir Oliver Lodge, the eminent English scientist, announced that the earth would probably continue to exist for 20,000,000 years more. These are, of course, round numbers. Some scientists estimate that the earth will live for ten times this age. There have been animals of one kind and another on this planet for fully this length of time. The dinosaurs are believed to have lived through some such period. The age of man, which is probably only a few thousand years, seems the merest trifle by comparison. When we consider how man has developed during recorded history, which is less than ten thousand years, we may hope that he will evolve to an infinitely finer type in the future.—Boys' Life.

Carry Photo Messages in Eyes.

Spies, engaged in a life-and-death business, have devised extraordinarily ingenious methods of concealment since history began. No means could be more remarkable, however, than that used by the Russian bolsheviks for getting messages through the enemy lines. The inside skin of an eggshell is pasted on glass, and reduced with a microscope knife to almost impalpable thinness. It is then sensitized, and a microscopic message photographed upon it. Removed from the glass, it is spread with a brush on the spy's eyeball, under the lid. It does not inconvenience the carrier, and being quite transparent it is practically invisible.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

BID OF BONDING COMPANY IS REJECTED

Council Takes Action at Meeting on Thursday Evening—To Re-advertise for Bids

SOFT COAL SEEMS TO BE SCARCE

Proposition of a New Sewer for Block on South Seventh Street Near Postoffice Considered

The Hanchett Bond company of Chicago was the lone bidder on $33,400 permanent improvement revolving fund bonds bearing 5 per cent interest and $54,000 repaying certificates, agreeing to pay par and interest to date of delivery, but asking $10,400 for printing blank bonds, legal opinion and selling commission. The city council voted to reject the bid and re-advertise.

Bids for 140 tons of soft coal brought one response. Turcotte Brothers agreed to furnish the city 50 tons at $12.10 a ton. The matter was referred to the purchasing committee of the council.

City engineer, city employees and clerks of election payrolls were allowed.

Proposition of a new sewer near the postoffice to serve church, Woodhead Motor Co. and residences of a block on South Seventh street was referred to finance committee, city engineer and city attorney.

THREE UP FOR LIQUOR VIOLATIONS

Three men were before U. S. Commissioner A. D. Polk for alleged liquor law violations.

Frank Grant, also known as "Zone", of Crosby, was charged with having two stills and 100 gallons of raisin mash in his possession. He is an Italian, has lived 30 years in America and is no citizen.

Walter McIntosh of 824 South Fourth street, is charged with having a complete still and part of another and 10 gallons of mash in his possession. It is also claimed he has been selling booze. Records show that four years ago he was arrested on a charge of introducing liquor into the territory.

Mike Stimich of Crosby was arrested on a charge of having liquor in his possession.

The arrests were made by Special Officer E. G. Boyd and assistants George Musolf, Leo Mayer and Oscar Baker.

COMMITTEE

Domesday Book.

Domesday Book, or Doomsday Book, is the ancient record of the survey of most of the lands of England made by order of William the Conqueror under special commissioners about the year 1086. It consists of two volumes, a large folio and a quarto, and gives the name of every proprietor of land and the extent of his possessions. All of England, except Northumberland, Durham, part of Cumberland and part of Westmoreland, was included in the survey. The Domesday Book was formerly kept in the chapter house of Westminster, but is now in the public record office.

Taxes were levied by this book until 1522, when a more accurate survey was published at national cost in 1783, in two folio volumes. Two supplementary volumes were published in 1816.

Where Life Is Longest.

Which is the healthiest place in the world?

If the index is the death rate, as it presumably must be, we have to go to the unlikely neighborhood of the antarctic to find it. In the last colonial report from the Falkland Islands the death rate for 1917 and 1918 was 5.31 per 1,000. During ten years the death rate in England and Wales did not drop below 13.3, and was as high as 17.6.

Yet the climate of the Falkland Islands is vigorous and the country is more bleak and barren than the Shetlands. High winds blow almost constantly, but there is no scarcity of sunshine. To these, Nature's two great disinfectants, is probably due the longevity of the sparse population. —London Tit-Bits.

Measuring Colors.

An English scientist has, according to Popular Mechanics Magazine, worked out a method of taking exact measurement of color. Black, white and gray are photometrically compared with standard white, and their composition expressed in percentage of black or white. A color, such as red, is compared with a white surface in a pure red light. If the red appears darker, it is matched with a gray surface under a red light, the percentage of black then being the same in both. Assigning the number 25 to red, such a composition as crimson would be signified by the figures 25 44 18, meaning red with 4 per cent of white and 18 per cent of black.

BRAINERD TO PLAY CROSBY

Range Champions and Brainerd in a Gruelling Contest at Crosby on Sunday Afternoon June 27

LANE AND BEYERS FOR RANGE

Morse and Moore May be the Battery for Brainerd, a Good Game is Anticipated

Brainerd will play Crosby at Crosby on Sunday, June 27, and one of the best games of the whole season is anticipated. Crosby so far has gone through its season with only one defeat chalked up and that was in its first game with the Clydes at Duluth. They have a crackerjack team, on its toes, hard hitting and brilliantly fielding. Its star pitcher is Nig Lane and his battery mate is Beyers, formerly of the Brooklyn Nationals.

Brainerd has a hunch that given a few breaks it will win from the range. The team made a grand record last year. It had a slow start this season, but is rapidly rounding into shape and if Crosby can be defeated Brainerd stock will advance 100 points like the steel barometer when war opened.

Brainerd will be largely represented at the Crosby game, many automobile parties being formed to make the trip.

Brainerd club directors met Wednesday evening and decided to reinforce the club where needed. Finances will be added to by committees interviewing many who have not yet donated to the club.

C. W. Koering's written lease was read and the directors decided that inasmuch as a verbal lease had been satisfactorily made by club directors with Mr. Koering, the latter being satisfied in May, accepting advance payment and thus sealing the bargain and permitting the club to enter and use the park, that a written lease in the middle of the season was in a measure superfluous and the written leases were ordered returned to him. Mr. Koering at the time of the verbal lease entered into, accepted two post dated checks, one for $100 due June

MONSTER CROWD AT THE PICNIC

A big crowd gathered at the Community picnic at Lum park early in the morning before the rain pattered down. When the moisture came down in the afternoon, refuge was taken in the pavilion and dancing held full sway.

Between showers the sports program was carried out. Farmers, business men, shop men, all present were pleased at the arrangements provided and enjoyed to the utmost the community gathering.

A feature was the fine playing by the Brainerd Municipal band. Tibbitt's orchestra played for the dance.

20 and one for $100 due July 20. His price of $300 for the season's rental is the highest rent ever paid for the use of his ball park.

New Pitcher Engaged

Leverette will throw for Brainerd Sunday at Crosby and has been signed for the rest of the season. Leverette belongs to the St. Louis club of the American league right now and can report to them any time, but prefers to keep his position with the Witcox Trux Co. of Minneapolis and play semi-pro ball. He was with St. Louis for spring training.

Mrs. Curley Dies

After an illness of fifteen months Mrs. Chas. A. Curley passed away at her home in this city at 9:30 Monday evening, June 14th, 1920.

Funeral services were held from the Sacred Heart church Thursday morning at 9:00 o'clock, Rev. Father Zittur officiating.

Rose Wedl, was born at Richmond, Minn., Dec. 27th, 1862. On Nov. 27th, 1888 she was united in marriage to Chas. A. Curley at Brainerd, Minn. After living in Brainerd two years they moved to Staples.

She was a mother of three children, Roy C. Curley of Edmonton, Alberta, Can and Geneva and Irene of Staples.

Her son Roy was not able to attend the funeral on account of the

GREAT HELP FOR DISABLED MEN

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION BOARD
RESTORING THOUSANDS TO USEFUL CITIZENSHIP.

RED CROSS IS CO-OPERATING

Has Workers Everywhere Who Locate Former Soldiers and Sailors and Advise and Aid Them in Many Ways.

By JAMES P. HORNADAY.

Washington.—Records of the federal board for vocational education show that to May 1, 1920, more than 35,000 disabled men had entered courses of training and that 20,000 additional men had been accepted for courses, of which there are 125, in technical, agricultural, professional and academic institutions; public and private. The Red Cross is in close co-operative touch with the work of the federal board and is in a position to advise the disabled ex-service men concerning training which will restore them to their communities as useful, producing citizens. Thousands of the men know the value of the friendly assistance which the Red Cross offers.

In practically all of the 14 district vocational offices which the federal board maintains the Red Cross has its workers, and in most of the communities where the men are in training in schools and colleges there is a Red Cross worker to look after the interests of the students. In association with the district officers of the board, the Red Cross is instrumental in various ways in locating the men who are eligible; in getting the message across to ex-service men who are not aware of the opportunities open to them; in arranging for interviews between the men interested and the district officers; in advising proper courses, and in assisting in many matters of procedure incident to entering training, such as the filing of applications and the adjusting of claims and compensation.

What Home Service Workers Do.

Through the efforts of Red Cross home service workers, who are in close touch with the families of ex-service men, many who would not otherwise have entered training are persuaded to do so. It is sometimes found that a man refuses training because of influence brought to bear by his family to have him remain at home. In such instances the friendly advice of the Red Cross worker is often the means of convincing the family of the benefits of vocational education and the result it will have on the man's future welfare. Many times there are family difficulties which keep the man at home, and these the home service section tries to adjust.

Frequently the federal board refers to the Red Cross the names of men whom it cannot locate because of insufficient address. In one locality the Red Cross learned of the names of 15 men whose medical reports the federal board had, but for whom no addresses were given. From the medical reports the Red Cross obtained the names of the places where the men had been discharged, wrote to the Red Cross field directors in the various camps and, consequently, obtained the addresses. As a result the men are now in training. It would be difficult to recount all of the friendly forms of service extended by the Red Cross to the men.

Establishes Clubs for the Men.

An especially valuable form of Red Cross aid to the men who have entered training is that given in establishing clubs in places where they are not adequately provided for in the college dormitories. This has been worked out effectively in Buffalo and Brooklyn, New York. In Providence, where there are some one hundred and twenty-five men in training at the Rhode Island school of design and at a business college, the Red Cross, working in conjunction with the school people, instituted a plan providing for the adaptation of the service men's club to meet the needs of the situation.

It appears now that the vocational training for maimed soldiers will go on for a good many years. That much good is coming out of this training is admitted by all who are acquainted with what is being done. Notwithstanding congress continues to appropriate millions for carrying on the work, the government is not able to furnish instruction to all who apply. There has been a good deal of criticism of the way the activity has been managed, and doubtless in the hurry of getting it started many mistakes were made, but the congressional investigation now about completed shows that on the whole the activity has been well conducted.

No one connected with the government is able to say at this time when it will be possible for Uncle Sam to give up his care for the crippled soldier. The federal hospitals are still crowded with men in various stages of recovery. The public health service which has charge of these hospitals does not expect to be relieved of responsibility in connection with the men for a long time.

EXPECTS TO CATCH 1,000 GAMES

Ray Schalk, Star Backstop of the Champion White Sox.

Ray Schalk, the crack catcher of the White Sox, American league champions, expects to complete his 1,000th major league game before the summer is over. The plucky little backstop now is within a few games of that mark. This record has been made in less than eight years.

Schalk is regarded as the best catcher in the majors, his closest rival being Bill Killefer of the Chicago Cubs and Steve O'Neill of the Cleveland Indians. Few big league catchers have reached the 1,000 mark.

JOIE RAY BELIEVED TO BE BEST RUNNER

Coaches Say Little Star Has Never Been Extended.

Close Followers of Amateur Athletics Think He Will Be Invincible in Olympic Games Over Favorite Distances.

When Joie Ray of the Illinois Athletic club, America's premier distance runner, won the half-mile and two-mile runs in the Central A. A. U. senior indoor track and field championships close followers of amateur athletics believe he will be invincible in the Olympic games over his favorite distances.

Although Ray did not meet any runners of note, the fact remains that some of Ray's reserve was called upon to run three races in one night. His best performance was in the mile, which he covered in 4:29 on a track with unbanked turns. The time in the other races was slow, as Joie was not pushed in either.

Speculation is rife among coaches and trainers as to what Ray will do when he meets a runner of his own speed and endurance. Many contend Ray has never been extended and there is no telling how fast he can reel off a mile if he has to step every yard of the distance.

There is no runner on the American athletic horizon who has a chance to beat Ray this year, but when the American starts his favorite races at Antwerp the situation will be different. Ray knows the weaknesses of America's best runners, while he is not familiar with the racing of Europe's best men. It is the consensus of opinion of most coaches that Ray will be carried along at such a fast clip in his races that he will need all the reserve he can store up. Some of these men contend that a mistake is being made in making the little star race so much.

EDDIE ROUSH USES OLD BATS

teams during his youthful days. Whenever the Reds need a timely hit and it is Roush's good fortune to be at bat he always relies upon one of his cherished weapons. Roush prizes these bats so highly that he declines to loan them to his clubmates.

CURVE BALL COMING BACK

"I'd like to be a young pitcher, just coming up, with a curve ball," says Hank O'Ray. "Mark what I say, the curve ball pitcher will be back in all his old power within three years by the stopping of freak deliveries. There are not enough fast ball pitchers who are effective against great batters."

MANY HAVE WRITTEN OF WAR

From Homer to the Present Day Correspondents Have Accompanied the Armies in the Field.

War correspondents, who have a distinguished place in the latest history list, form an ancient tribe if we reckon Homer as one of them, remarks the Manchester Guardian. Sutherland Edwards maintained that the editor of a Greek paper entitled Chronos sent Homer out to Troy to describe the incidents of the siege, which really lasted only about seven weeks. But when it was at an end the Greek chiefs had no desire whatever to go home; and as Homer (or "O'Maher"—to give his name in its original un-Hellenized form) was a very good fellow and drew a large salary with an abundant allowance for expenses, he readily accepted the idea proposed by the wise Ulysses—to keep the war going in the columns of his paper as long as he could manage to write about it. His correspondence was too good not to publish; and meantime the Greek chiefs went about amusing themselves.

There were no newspaper correspondents in the peninsular war, nor in the Waterloo campaign—though Rothschild, in 1815, had a correspondent of his own who kept close to Wellington's army and supplied his employer with news of high financial value. After the peace of 1815 the first war of importance in Europe was the one between the Carlists and the Christians in Spain, which, beginning in 1833, dragged on in desultory fashion until 1837, when a British legion having been formed to assist the Christians, it attracted much attention in this country. British opinion was divided. Queen Christina finding support among the whigs, Don Carlos among the Tories. Both armies were accused of committing atrocities, so the Times and the Morning Post sent correspondents to find out how the war was really being carried on. Capt. Henningsen, who represented the Times, was an admirable writer and a professional soldier, whereas Charles Gruenisen, who went on behalf of the Post, possessed no military experience. Still, he proved the more successful of the two, for Henningsen's letters never reached the Times. Gruenisen's, on the other hand, appeared in the Morning Post, and on this rests the claim put forward, not by Gruenisen himself but by his friends, for classing him as the earliest of our war correspondents.

Now the "Flivver" Airplane.

The perfection of a small, simplified airplane with a purchase price and upkeep within the reach of the average man, has often been attempted in both Europe and America. One of the latest American attempts has resulted in the completion of a little monoplane, says Popular Mechanics Magazine, that measures only twenty-five feet eight-inches in span, weighs only 350 pounds when empty, yet is very satisfactory in performance. The single-seat body is of the monoplane, shell-type, with the four struts of the pylon rising in front of the cockpit. Bracing wires stretch from the pylon to eight points on the spars of the right and left wing. Alleron is of the wing tip, unbalanced variety. A twin cylinder, opposed engine drives the machine, giving it a maximum speed of seventy-five miles an hour with a load of 250 pounds.

Grades of Witches.

In the olden times there were three classes of witches. The black witch was a harmful affair, and the white witch was a helpful spirit. Then there was the gray witch who was sometimes harmful and sometimes helpful. Indictments against persons accused of witchcraft had to state the complexion of the spirit that bewitched.

New Profession for Women

New York, April. —A new occupation for women is offered by the Food Department of the General Chemical Company. It provides for part time work and is especially adapted for young married women who have had some business experience and whose household duties leave them considerable free time.

This new field of work is in an organization to be known as the Ryzon Service Staff. Its purpose will be to bring individual women in touch with the most advanced ideas in cooking, baking, and other domestic tasks.

Positions in the new service will offer valuable opportunities for dignified and profitable sales and advertising work. Local representatives of the Ryzon Service Staff will be needed. They will work on a salary and commission basis.

The chief requisite for positions on the Ryzon staff is a thorough knowledge of Ryzon Baking Powder. It is also necessary for applicants to understand the modern Ryzon method of level spoonful measuring which has assured scientific accuracy in home baking with uniformly successful results. This method is described in the Ryzon Baking Book.

Letters of application for appointment to the Ryzon Service Staff, containing a concise statement of qualifications, should be sent immediately to the Food Department, General Chemical Company, 25 Broad Street, New York City.

The new Ryzon Baking Book (original price $1.00), containing 250 practical recipes, will be mailed, postpaid, upon receipt of 30 cents in stamps or coin. Or if you will purchase two or more pounds of Ryzon at once from your grocer, sending us his name and address promptly, we will mail you a Ryzon Baking Book free.
